

Alternate Delegate Report: Forum Coordinator

Spring Assembly, May 19-20, 2018

Terry Woodside, Area Alternate Delegate, twoodside1@verizon.net

1. The Forum Book (working Title). This planned publication will be a compilation of favorite articles from past editions. WSO has so far received 740 favorites from readers. You and your group members can send in your favorites to wso@al-anon.org or mail to The Forum, 1600 Corporate Landing Parkway, Virginia Beach, VA 23454-5617.

2. The Forum Writing Guidelines (F-1): This guideline was updated last June and is available at WSO's website. It lists word counts for 5 different types of sharings, as well as general suggestions for writing your recovery story.

3. Ideas for your sharing: The magazines is still looking for sharings on the Legacies. Check out the upcoming June issue for an article on what happens when you send in your submission.

4. The E-magazine version is even easier to find on the WSO website. There are now direct links for ordering it at al-anon.org/onlinestore, under "Electronic Literature."

5. GRs as Forum Representatives: GRs, don't forget to keep your group supplied with subscription forms, available in each issue or online at the WSO website. Also have a supply of F-1s on hand. Use The Forum in your meetings. Bring a topic from the current issue, or from a favorite back issue.

6. Subscription Report: WSO has changed its method of reporting subscriptions. We now get monthly reports of issues sold.
