Updates since last meeting:

Successes-We hosted an in person Gratitude Breakfast in October. AAs graciously cooked and served the breakfast. There was an AI-Anon and an AA speaker.

-We had an in person holiday district meeting in December at a local restaurant

Our Richmond area webmaster created a QR code linked to the Richmond area website <https://www.alanonrichmond.org>. I had 1" square stickers printed up and have given sheets to public outreach and to groups for their use.

- We hosted an in person Lois' birthday celebration in March. Refreshments were provided. Juanita was the guest speaker.

-Our district public outreach committee created outreach packets and guidelines for each group that were distributed at the Lois event.

-Our district meetings continue monthly on Webex, with an in person meeting quarterly in a county public library meeting room. Attendance has been very good.

- We have 2 new GRs. And a healthy budget

Challenges-2 meetings closed. One was in person and even met at the same time and in the same place as big AA meeting. The other was virtual Future--A district picnic social for AI-anon members, family and friends is scheduled for June. It will be at a shelter at a county park.

-Start an Alateen meeting in our district?
