Updates from the last meeting:

- The district has continued to hold monthly business meetings with good attendance and participation by attending GRs. We have finished discussion of the Concepts and have begun to discuss the Conflicts resolution kit. Individual groups had Outreach projects completed as we did not have District Outreach position filled. Great News we now have an Outreach coordinator and are supporting her as she steps into the position. District Outreach has gotten a display into the Princess Anne Library and will be getting a display into Va Beach Central Library soon. Al-anon How Books and e books have been added to the available books with the VA Beach Library. We also have been supporting the new ASCT Outreach Coordinator as well. A District get together/social was held and another is in the planning in the planning
- Events we are planning will be a Picnic to be held Oct.31.
- Successes are continued monthly District meetings, Completion of the 12 Concepts discussion. Individual group outreach projects. The position of Outreach Coordinator is now filled.

- Challenges are filling open GR positions (4) and encouraging participation in service.
- Goals are to fill the open GR positions and encourage participation of service at all levels.
- Things that are working well are holding monthly district meetings and helping GRs learn more about service at all levels.
- Things that need attention are filling open GR positions and encouraging participation in service for a stronger District.
