Updates since last meeting:

Events or projects the District has completed since last meeting

- Outreach Committee has provided some healthcare facilities and churches with Alanon information.

Events or projects the District is planning

- A second speaker potluck event is being planned for Spring of 2026.

Successes – none too small or too large to share!

- DR, GR, and District Treasurer attended the VA Fall Assembly in Midlothian, Va on Sept. 26, 27, 2025.
- Meetings continue to grow in attendance (newcomers and returnees).
- Made a decision to disperse Alateen treasury (held over from a long-since closed Alateen meeting). (Alateen Area Coordinator was contacted to inquire how best to support Alateen in this contribution).
- Outreach and “event” committees have set dates to meet.

Challenges

- Filling service positions at both the AFG and District level.
- Increasing our group’s treasuries.

Goals

- To improve AFG contributions by stating a need for increased individual contributions as the 7th tradition basket is passed.
- Increase attendance at business meetings.

Things that are working well

- Members are willing to lead and participate in AFG and District meetings.
- Meetings are healthy and growing.

Things that need attention

- How to effectively express the need for increasing personal contributions to meet expenses such as literature, assembly, outreach projects and donation to service arms.
- Continue to emphasize in our groups/district the need for outreach in our communities.
